Mission Action Planning

Every parish in the diocese is required to have something called a Mission Action Plan (MAP) which sets out its plans and opportunities to proclaim the love of God in Jesus Christ and invite people to a life of faith and discipleship.

People come to faith and to practising their faith in many different ways. The gift of faith comes from God, but the church is the visible sign of God's presence in the world. It is important that we are as welcoming and encouraging as possible to those whom God prompts to seek him through us.

There will be an opportunity to share thoughts and ideas about all this at an open meeting that will take place at 8.15pm this Tuesday 12th September. From the thoughts and ideas that come from this meeting the PCC will draw up our new Mission Action Plan that, by the grace of God, will guide our proclamation of the gospel over the next few years.

Holy Innocents Autumn Fair

Holy Innocents are holding an autumn fair this Saturday 16th September from 10.00 am to 4.00pm. All welcome.

The Pilgrim Course

Another season of the faith exploration and sharing course 'Pilgrim' will start at 8.15 on Tuesday 26th September. This autumn we shall spend the time looking at the Eucharist (Mass).

Greetings from Fr. Toby Boutle

It was very good indeed to see Fr. Toby and Roy at Holy Trinity two Sundays ago. Fr. Toby has sent a card to everyone at Holy Trinity which reads as follows:

It was such a great privilege and a joy to be back at Holy Trinity to celebrate Mass and to preach at what still feels very much like my home Church. Thank you for your very generous present of the book token, and for all your prayers and support over recent years, which I very much appreciate. It was lovely to see so many friends - and I hope to be back in Stroud Green to see you all again soon. Love and best wishes - Toby.

The lovely card itself is on the 'welcome table' at the back of church for all to see.

Trinity Toddlers

Our Monday morning playgroup for pre-school children and babies and their carers resumes this week at 10.00 am in the hall. Thanks and much appreciation go to the dedicated team of ladies who enable this to take place each week during school, term time.
