An Enormous 'Thank you'

A massive thank you to everyone who, over the run-up to Christmas has:

- Cleaned and decorated the church
- Donated money for the flowers
- Helped distribute the parish cards to local streets
- Prepared the music and sung in the Holy Innocents carols service, the CAFOD carol service at St. Peter in Chains, and at the Carols on the Green here.
- Supported the Christingle service with the Brownies and Guides on 14th December. £135 has been sent to the Children's Society.

The clergy also want to thank everyone who has very kindly sent them greetings, cards or gifts this Christmas.

Morning and Evening Prayer

Morning and Evening Prayer will be said privately over the Christmas season. The public offices will resume in the new year.

Holy Innocents Day

Holy Innocents are celebrating their patronal festival with a Sung Mass at 7.00 pm this Thursday. All are welcome, and there will be a lovely supper afterwards. Please phone Fr. Ben on 020 8340 1300 or email him at frben.holyinnocents@gmail.com if you wish to stay for the meal, as this will help with catering.

Toilet Twinning

Picture of the toilets in developing countries which our church toilets are twinned with are now displayed above the cubicle doors. There are also maps showing the location of the twinned toilets. Again, 'thank you' to everyone who helped with this fund-raising effort.

Thursdays Together closed for Christmas

Please note our weekly Thursday lunchtime 'drop-in' is closed now until 11th January.
