WELCOME TO HOLY TRINITY - Seeking to know and serve God and our local community

Today's hymns are: 158, 90, 732 and 684. Please stay for refreshments after Mass.

Welcome (back)

This week sees a general drift back to routine after the summer holidays. Our schools start back, our roads get busier and the summer lull begins to fade into the background. Parishes follow this general trend, and there are a number of events and activities which will begin again over the next few weeks.

I am very conscious that apart from Sundays and holy days, there is only one celebration of the Mass here at Holy Trinity during the week - on Tuesday evenings. Starting this week there will be an additional weekday Mass on Friday mornings at 9.30 am (following Morning Prayer at 9.10). We will trial this for a few months, and I hope that it might fill a need for a regular day-time weekday celebration in the church.

We also welcome back David and Lucy as Pastoral Assistants in Holy Trinity and Hornsey parishes respectively. This year they are joined by a young lady called Clem (Clemency Flitter) who has just finished her history studies at Oxford, and will be based at Holy Innocents but also working in Holy Trinity parish. The Mass of Welcome for our Pastoral Assistants will be at Holy Innocents this Wednesday at 7.30 pm, followed by some refreshments. All are welcome.

We shall also be starting a new series of groups and discussions on Tuesday evenings after the 7.30 pm Mass. Look out for further details. - Fr. Patrick.

Holy Innocents late summer fair

Holy Innocents are holding their summer fair on Saturday 14th September from 11.00 am to 4.00 pm. There will be a variety of stalls, food and other attractions for all ages, and all are welcome.

Confirmation and First Holy Communion

Bishop Jonathan will be coming to Holy Trinity in January for our confirmation. If you or anyone you know would like to know more about being confirmed and / or receiving Holy Communion for the first time, please speak to Fr. Patrick.
